Only the goalkeepers may use their hands and arms, and only then within the penalty area.

The FIFA World Cup, inaugurated in 1930, became the main stage for players of both continents to show their worth and the strength of their national teams.

Though there are a variety of positions in which the outfield (non-goalkeeper) players are strategically placed by a coach, these positions are not defined or required by the Laws.[92]

[102] Players are forbidden to wear or use anything that is dangerous to themselves or another player, such as jewellery or watches.

A game is officiated by a referee, who has "full authority to enforce the Laws of the Game in connection with the match to which he has been appointed"

; (Law 5), and whose decisions are final.
