A tweet from Phil Spencer, Microsoft Gaming s CEO, r ead: We are pleased to announce that Microsoft and @PlayStation have signed

27774; a binding agreement to keep Call of Duty on PlayStation following the ac quisition of Activision Blizzard. We look forward to 🌞 a future where p layers globally have more choice to play their favorite games.

In the United States, the FTC had argued 🌞 the acquisition dea

I would hurt consumers whether they played video games on consoles or had subscri ptions because Microsoft would have 🌞 an incentive to shut out rivals

like Sony Group.

However, Judge Jacqueline Scott Corley ruled on 11 June: The FTC has &

#127774; not shown it is likely to succeed on its assertion the combined firm w ill probably pull Call of Duty from 🌞 Sony PlayStation, or that its own ership of Activision content will substantially lessen competition in the video game library subscription and 🌞 cloud gaming markets.

To address the FTC s concerns, Microsoft had agreed to license Call of Duty to rivals, including a 10-year 🌞 contract with Nintendo, contingen t on the merger closing.

On Sunday, Microsoft did not disclose the duration of the agreement wit h Sony.
